

ICAN Conference in Warsaw, Poland

April 23, 2009 - Temecula, CA – Partners In Leadership’s President of the International Division and Sr. Vice President Tracy Skousen recently conducted a very successful conference in Warsaw, Poland partnering with ICAN.

ICAN is an exclusive partner of Harvard Publishing in Poland in selling their corporate learning solutions (including e-learning and blended products). They are also the publisher of the Polish Edition of the Harvard Business Review, which gives them a unique access to the target market there.

“I was thrilled with the reception we received in Poland,” Skousen said. “Accountability is a global issue that every organization faces, and at Partners In Leadership we have the tools and accountability training necessary to help organizations decrease costs, increase revenues and achieve key results.”

During the three-day event that went from April 20-22, Skousen met with numerous HR executives, CEO’s and the general public, and presented to the entire conference in keynote presentation on April 22nd.

About Partners In Leadership:

Partners In Leadership® is the worldwide leader in Accountability Training® with over 700 clients in 56 countries, including almost half of the DJIA companies and many of Fortune’s “Most Admired” and “Global 100” companies. They are also the bestselling authors of “The Oz Principle,” and “Journey to the Emerald City,” and their recently released New York Times Bestseller “How Did That Happen?”

Media Contact:

Mattson Newell
Marketing Manager, Partners In Leadership
(801) 763-1555
mattson.newell@ozprinciple.com